

Ceramics

After more than 20 years since the Gulbenkian's Lznik pottery catalogue

Glass

20th Century British Glass
By Charles R Hajdamach

20th Century British Glass

Charles R. Hajdamach

...ovenware and everything in eights. Chapters focus on the look at individual designers uding the Festival of Britain in look at post-war designers nd Frank Thrower.

... British Glass, was elected a 2000 for services to glass and House Glass Museum which national scene. In 1993 he and of glass collectors, makers and nbers nationally and interna-monograph on British glass by through the twentieth century s factory glass I am looking formation as I am interested in ... discovering if anything new has been added to the subject. In any event I will suggest again that any monograph published by ACC should repay its cost many times over. In co-operation with ACC we are offering this book as a prize in the February 2010 Crossword Competition, see page 92, Editor.

Carry Me!

1950's Lucite Handbags
an American Fashion

Janice Berkson
Photography by John Ripstein Taylor

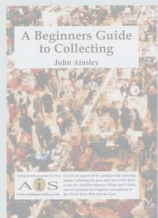

Carry Me! 1950s Lucite Handbags, an American fashion. By Janice Berkson £29.95 978 18514 95931 Pub'd by Antique Collectors Club

Personal Accessories. Vintage.

Published to coincide with an exhibition at The Dixon Gallery and Gardens, Memphis which runs until 17th January 2010. (www.dixon.org) Handbags have long been a symbol of status and style, dominating the fashion scene, adding the finishing touches to an outfit. This well illustrated book celebrates some of the most fantastic and desirable handbags of the 1950s. All constructed from lucite, an acrylic plastic, considered to be a radical and innovative substance at the time. Still highly desirable and collectable today, commanding high sums on the vintage fashion scene. On dividing line between vintage and retro. Worthwhile work by ACC on this important accessory. Ed.

Carry Me! 1950s Lucite Handbags, an American fashion. By Janice Berkson £29.95 978 18514 95931 Pub'd by Antique Collectors Club

... commanding high sums on the vintage fashion scene. On dividing line between vintage and retro. Worthwhile work by ACC on this important accessory. Ed.

A Beginner's Guide to Collecting by John Ainsley £5.99 incl. UK p&p. See page 89 or phone 01843 862069.

Collecting

Contains chapters on a philosophy for collectors, pros and cons of the market and then looks in greater detail at the fairs market, the auctions market and the shops and centres market. These sections contain specific advice relating to the pitfalls and problems in these areas of the market and how collectors can protect themselves against spurious purchases. There is a study of the World Wide Web and in particular auctions web-sites such as eBay and consumer websites e.g. Citizen's Advice Bureau and Consumer Direct. This chapter deals specifically with law in respect of buying and selling on the Internet. Broad look at the pros and cons of the market and the web.

Shirley Craven and Hull Traders by Lesley Jackson £25 978 18514 96082 Pub'd by Antique Collectors Club

Textiles

Big bold abstracts in eye-catching colours, Shirley Craven's eye for textiles encapsulate the excitement of the Swinging Sixties. Retaining the most original and creative designs of the 1960s, she celebrates her remarkable partnership with Hull Traders, a company who printed and sold rare archive photographs of national post-war textiles. Includes a full catalogue of all textiles and furniture by Hull Traders plus biographical information of forty contributing artists and designers. Important work for the textile dealer/collector. We now know all about Hull Traders. Editor.

... discovering if anything new has been added to the subject. In any event I will suggest again that any monograph published by ACC should repay its cost many times over. In co-operation with ACC we are offering this book as a prize in the February 2010 Crossword Competition, see page 92, Editor.

Check out prices for Titanic Memorabilia on pages 48 to 51. Jazz Age and Flappers Vintage prices on pages 34 and 35.

ANTIQUES INFO

News, Information, Prices for the Dealer & Collector

Special Xmas and New Year Book Offers inside 60% off Price Guides

Latest investment news and RICS Survey, market stats, gold/silver prices, fairs and auctions news. See pages 4 to 15.

Illustrated prices from latest sales. Covers all categories of collecting. See pages 56 to 71.

Fairs/Auctions smart search diaries covering two months.

Eight major Features in every edition. Covers all aspects of the market.

Sign up to our Gold Services from as little as a £1 per month. Access a free access to individual fairs, and personal view on www.antiquesinfo.co.uk where you can track the market and prices. The information is going for a song!

January/February 2010 17th Year No. 42, £5.75

The Editor's latest book, A Beginner's Guide to Collecting, looks at the pros and cons of the collecting scene, including the Web. Only £5.99 or free with other purchases.

Gold Services INFO GOLD SERVICES

Right, catalogues, accessories, coaches, coaches, identification simple, day at the following (normally) £9.50

chique, PO payable to, North End Lane, Fulbeck, Grantham, Leicestershire

Simon Epton is now publishing titles about every couple of months. We have covered them all but I am beginning to lose track of the titles that have been published and the titles still to come. We need a list. Editor.