

Ceramics

After more than 20 years since the Gulbenkian's Iznik pottery catalogue was published comes this book celebrating the impressive decorative repertoire of the great diversity of ceramic and

Glass

20th Century British Glass
By Charles R Hajdamach
£49.50 978 18514 95870
Pub'd by Antique Collectors Club
A complete and illustrated survey of

20th Century British Glass

Charles R. Hajdamach

ovenware and everything in glass. Chapters focus on the work at individual designers including the Festival of Britain in 1951 and look at post-war designers including Frank Thwaiter.

British Glass, was elected a 1000 for services to glass and the House of Glass Museum which is a national scene. In 1993 he and other glass collectors, makers and designers nationally and internationally on British glass by the twentieth century factory glass. I am looking for a nation as I am interested in subject. In any event I will be happy to repay its cost many times over.

In co-operation with ACC we are entering this book as a prize in our January/February 2010 Crossword Competition, see page 92, Editor.

Shirley Craven and Hull Traders
By Lesley Jackson
£25 978 18514 96082
Pub'd by Antique Collectors Club

Textiles

Big bold abstracts in eye-popping colours, Shirley Craven's extraordinary textiles encapsulate the exuberance of the Swinging Sixties. Rediscovering the most original and exciting textile designer of the 1960s. The book celebrates her remarkable creative partnership with Hull Traders, the company who printed her designs. Contains stunning new photographs and rare archive photographs of inspirational post-war textiles. Includes a full catalogue of all textiles and furniture by Hull Traders plus biographical information of forty contributing artists and designers. Important work for the textile dealer/collector. We now know all about Hull Traders. Editor.

Ca an Berksom £29.95 978 18514 95931
Pub'd by Antique Collectors Club

vintage and retro. Wordwhale work by ACC on this important accessory. Ed.

A Beginner's Guide to Collecting
By John Ainsley
£5.99 incl. UK p&p. See page 89 or phone 01843 862069.

Collecting

Contains chapters on a philosophy for collectors, pros and cons of the market and then looks in greater detail at the fairs market, the auctions market and the shops and centres market. These sections contain specific advice relating to the pitfalls and problems in these areas of the market and how collectors can protect themselves against spurious purchases. There is a study of the World Wide Web and in particular auctions web-sites such as Ebay and consumer websites e.g. Citizen's Advice Bureau and Consumer Direct. This chapter deals specifically with the law in respect of buying and selling on the Internet. Broad look at the pros and cons of the market and the web. Ed.

Shirley Craven and Hull Traders
By Lesley Jackson
£25 978 18514 96082
Pub'd by Antique Collectors Club

Textiles

Big bold abstracts in eye-popping colours, Shirley Craven's extraordinary textiles encapsulate the exuberance of the Swinging Sixties. Rediscovering the most original and exciting textile designer of the 1960s. The book celebrates her remarkable creative partnership with Hull Traders, the company who printed her designs. Contains stunning new photographs and rare archive photographs of inspirational post-war textiles. Includes a full catalogue of all textiles and furniture by Hull Traders plus biographical information of forty contributing artists and designers. Important work for the textile dealer/collector. We now know all about Hull Traders. Editor.

Check out prices for Titanic Memorabilia on pages 48 to 51.
Jazz Age and Flappers Vintage prices on pages 34 and 35.

ANTIQUES INFO

News, Information, Prices for the Dealer & Collector

Latest investment news and RICS Survey market stats, gold/silver prices, fairs and auctions prices. See pages 4 to 15.

Illustrated prices from latest sales. Covers all categories of collecting. See pages 56 to 71.

Fairs/Auctions smart search diaries covering two months.

Eight major Features in every edition. Covers all aspects of the market.

Sign up to our Gold Services from an initial fee of £1 per month. Access a free access to selected fairs, and password access to www.antiquesinfo.co.uk where you can check the market and prices. The information is going for a song!

The Editor's latest book, A Beginner's Guide to Collecting, looks at the pros and cons of the collecting scene, including the Web. Only £5.99 or free with other purchases.

Special Xmas and New Year Book Offers inside 60% off Price Guides

Antiques Info Gold Services